SOCIETY NOTES.

On yesterday afternoon at her pretty home on Queen street, Mrs. P. A. Kolstad entertained her friends with a come and go reception, complimentary to her daughter, Mrs. Werner Kuhne of Tyler. The affair was one of the most brilliant of the entire social season, and a large number of ladies enjoyed it as guests of Mrs. Kolstad.

As the guests arrived they were met at the hall door and welcomed by Misses Eula Ewell, Lella Hearne and Amy Jordan, and were ushered into the parlor to meet the hostess and guest of honor and other receiving ladies. The receiving party consisted of twenty ladies, each representing some well known book. In the first parlor were Mrs. Kolstad and Mrs. Kuhne, and Mesdames Whitesell of Corsicana, Carl Weil of Lincoln, Neb., McNeil of Baton Rouge, La., John Kolstad, A. S. Fox and Frank Matthews. In the second parlor were Mesdames Henry Link, Louis Durr, V. D. Wilson, H. R. Moore, Ed. Burkhead, James Copeland, P. H. Hughes, T. W. Smith. Mrs. J. Carson and Mrs. Albert Durr welcomed the guests into the dining room, and Mrs. W. B. Flanagan and Mrs. Page served a salad course and poured coffee.

One of the most pleasant features of the reception was the guessing contest to determine the title of the books represented by the twenty receiving ladies. Thirteen of the guests named all of the books represented, and in drawing for the souvenirs Mrs. Yancy Jones got the first, and Miss Jordan the second, both souvenirs being handsome books.

In the hall the decorations were in ris a handsome pair of cuff buttons as a token of their esteem and appreciation for legal services kindly and gratuitously rendered. Mr. Harris responded in his own happy manner, making the ladies again his debtors.

At the close of the program all were invited into the refreshment hall, where tables were spread with palatable dainties and adorned with flowers. Thus closed a most enjoyable evening. Following is the program: Address of welcome, Lady Commander Response ..... Sir Knight Pearson Duett ..... Selected Mrs. Pusch, Miss Nellie Pusch. Recitation ..... Selected Miss Vinson Johns. Duett ..... Selected Misses Schnoor and Stephenson. Duett (Mandolin and Guitar)..... Selected Mr. and Mrs. Davis. Vocal Solo ..... Good-Night, Beloved Miss Teamer. Duett ..... Martha Miss Gladys Fleet, Mrs. Fleet. Recitation ..... Selected Sir Knight Pearson. Piano Solo ..... Selected Mrs. Pusch. L. O. T. M. Drill, Guards of Mary V. Reid Hive, No. 24. Refreshments.

Syrians Scrap.

There was a lively scrap yesterday afternoon between Syrians on Main street. A deaf mute among them got the worst of the fight, as he was slashed on the head with a butcher knife by a Syrian boy about 12 years of age, who went to the rescue of a grown brother. The wound inflicted is not considered dangerous. Arrests followed the fight.

red; in the front parlor pink and white roses and ferns; in the second parlor green and white decorations, white daffodils banked with ferns on the tables and mantel; in the dining room pink and white, pink carnations on the dining table, an oblong center piece wreathed with violets and asparagus ferns, and other decorations, making the entire scene one of beauty. Mrs. Kolstad proved herself a most charming entertainer, and her guests will long remember her reception as one of the most pleasant ones of the season.

A large audience assembled yesterday evening at the K. of P. hall as guests of Mary V. Reid Hive, No. 24, Ladies of the Maccabees of the World. The company was met at the door by the registrar and each guest had the pleasure of enrolling. After this the reception committee, consisting of the officers of the hive, graciously received their friends and gave them a most cordial welcome. There was prepared a delightful program of vocal and instrumental music, with recitations, closing with the L. O. T. M. drill conducted by Mrs. John H. Weeks, P. L. C., and led by Mesdames Taylor and Irving. It would be impossible to particularize in reference to the program, which was finely rendered throughout, and much enjoyed by an appreciative audience.

Only the drill will we specially mention, and this was indeed of artistic beauty and admirably rendered. At the request of the lady commander, Hon. T. J. Harris was escorted to her station by Sir Knight Escott and Mrs. Harry Everett, P. Lieut. C., in the name of the hive, presented Mr. Har-

J. A. Caldwell for Alderman.

In today's paper Mr. J. A. Caldwell announces as a candidate for alderman of the Third ward. Mr. Caldwell held this office for several months, and resigned for business reasons.

It is understood that Alderman W. C. Gorman will not stand for re-election, having made arrangements to leave Palestine at an early date.

While Mr. aCldwell was alderman every one knew it, for he kept well in the limelight, not by making grandstand plays, but by doing things. He rendered to the city an invaluable service in calling attention to the failure of the water company in failing to comply with its contract with the city, and in agitating other things that needed agitation. If re-elected to this office it is safe to predict that the people will again have a good "watch dog" in the council, who will assist to guard well the city's affairs. A little agitation at times is a good thing, even in the city council, where things usually move in harmony.

A Freight Wreck.

A freight wreck occurred yesterday afternoon on the south end, near Oakley, and the road was blocked for a considerable time. The train from the south did not reach the city until about 3:30 a. m., and through passengers north had to lay over here until the 8:10 train this morning.

SHRINERS TO MEXICO.

Special Train Bearing Them to the Land of the Montezumas.

A special train of Pullmans with a dining car passed through the city at noon today, carrying over two hundred Shriners to the City of Mexico, to participate in the exercises incident to conferring the Shriners' degree upon President Diaz.

It was a great body of fine looking men, and while at the local depot the railway company had several photographs taken of the train and its passengers.

Mr. J. M. McMillan, a member of the Ben Hur Temple at Austin, but who is a citizen of Palestine, joined the party here.

Bailey, and are now in charge of the stock at the same stand, in the Bailey building. They will continue to carry a first class stock of furniture, and ask for a share of your furniture business. They are at present continuing their second hand furniture store on Avenue A, and are buying and selling second hand furniture. They will be pleased to have you call on them. 17-6f

BASKET BALL GAMES.

First Will Be Played Tomorrow Evening—Y. M. C. A. Reds and Whites.

Basket ball games will be revived in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, and an interesting game is announced for tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock between the Y. M. C. A. Reds and the Whites. The admission is fixed at 10 cents. A week from Saturday night the local team is to play the Texarkana Y. M. C. A. team, and a game is also being arranged with the State University team at Austin at an early date.

WILL PLANT TOBACCO.

Montalba Farmers Will Join the Movement, and Plant Several Acres.

Special Agent Hinson was at Montalba, this county, yesterday, and he says several farmers there have joined the ranks of tobacco planters, and that a good acreage will be put in in filler tobacco. The tobacco movement is under good headway here now, and a big crop is expected the coming season.

Active Work Begun.

Active work has begun on the new Link building, corner of Oak and North Sycamore streets, and soon the walls of another handsome business house will be going up.

The walls of the new telephone building are building rapidly now. The brick work on the Dick-Brown building on Oak street will soon be finished.

WEATHER FORECAST.

For Palestine and vicinity: Tonight and Friday cloudy; slightly colder tonight.

Minimum temperature, 66 degrees; maximum temperature, 78 degrees.

Weather Conditions.

The high pressure area is over New England with temperature below zero from Boston northward. Precipitation has fallen in the path of this area from the northwest across the lakes, central valleys and middle Atlantic States during the past 24 hours. Another storm center has appeared on the California coast. The storm over El Paso yesterday has filled in and lost its
